THE SUNDAY HINDU TIMES Standard

SANSKRIT AS OFFICIAL LANGUAGE OF INDIA

AMENDMENT TO DRAFT PROVISIONS: AMBEDKAR AMONG SIGNATORIES

NEW DELHI, Sept 11: India's Law Minister, Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, is among those who have sponsored SANSKRIT as the official language of the Indian Union. One of his supporters, the Virus, Minister for External Affairs, Mr. Ramaswami Ambedkar, has also signed the amendment to the Draft Constitution. The amendment will be taken up by the Constituent Assembly when a quorum of it is available, and on such occasion the Constitution will be amended so that Sanskrit will be considered an official language of the Indian Union.

AMERICAN FAVOURS SANSKRIT

State of the American Surat

THE NATIONAL HERALD

11th Sept 1949